ILLINOIS
MILE AFTER MAGNIFICENT MILE®

THE CITY OF WOODSTOCK Illinois

WOODSTOCK

Welcome to the historic Woodstock Square, listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Spend a leisurely day shopping Woodstock's unique stores situated along brick streets amidst the quaint charm of 19th Century Architecture. Afterwards, enjoy an evening of fine dining and live entertainment. Then, spend the night to complete the experience of all that Woodstock has to offer!

You'll find everything from hand-crafted pottery, apparel, gifts and collectibles, toys, original fine art, antiques, gourmet foods and exquisite jewelry, restaurants, live entertainment and accommodations.

Two historic landmarks dominate the Woodstock Square—the Opera House and Courthouse Complex. The Romanesque-style Opera House was erected in 1889 and once served as the City Hall, library and fire department. Performers who spent their early years on its stage include Orson Welles and Paul Newman. Today, the Opera House remains the cultural entertainment center of Woodstock. Plays, concerts and performances are scheduled at the Opera House throughout the year, including the nationally renowned Woodstock Mozart Festival held each summer. Performance schedules are available at the ticket office in the Opera House lobby.

The Old McHenry County Court House, a simple Italianate structure built in 1857, is similar to the Cook County Court House of 1853 that was destroyed in the Great Chicago Fire. The Sheriff's House and Jail were added in 1887.

In 1894, Eugene Debs was held there for refusing to comply with a court injunction related to the Pullman Strike. The building served as the McHenry County government offices until the early 1970's when the county move to a new, larger facility.

Presently, the Old Courthouse and Sheriff's House Complex are home to a restaurant, an art gallery and a music academy.

Throughout the year, the historic Woodstock Square is the background for many events, festivals and fairs, summer band concerts and other musical performances, a farmer's market, and Groundhog Days - celebrating Woodstock's starring role as Puxatawney, PA in the 1993 movie, Groundhog Day.

Not to be missed is Woodstock's Victorian Christmas celebration that begins each Thanksgiving weekend. The Square glows from thousands of miniature lights illuminating the buildings and trees. Carolers stroll the streets and horse-drawn carriages transport visitors around the Square. Shopkeepers often provide refreshments while you search for the perfect gift.

We hope you enjoy your visit to the Woodstock Square and our community. Come back and visit often!

Woodstock is proud to be chosen as one of the National Trust Dozen Distinctive Destinations 2007
