

Sunday, October 18, 2015, 3:00 pm—Dedication of the Labyrinth walking path that is Phase Two of the Peace Park & Paths public recreation area on Lake Avenue. The Labyrinth was researched, designed and implemented by Bull Valley Garden Club members to provide relaxation and exercise based on a meditative concept that has been in use for 4,000 years. Creation of the park is a joint project between the City of Woodstock, Bull Valley Garden Club and D200 Challenge Corps students, with partial funding from McHenry County Community Foundation.
