FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Aggravated Criminal Sexual Abuse

On April 29th, 2015, the Woodstock Police Department's Criminal Investigations Division initiated an aggravated criminal sexual abuse investigation, where it was reported that registered child sex offender 28 year old Ronald R. Boss may have been having an inappropriate sexual relationship with a female under the age of 17.

During the course of this extensive investigation, it was learned that Boss met the minor child while performing some construction work at the residence of the minor, whom he later befriended her on social media. Boss continued to engage in the inappropriate contact with the minor until the mother of the child became aware of the relationship and contacted the Woodstock Police Department.

After numerous interviews and conferring with the McHenry County States Attorney's Office, approval was given for two counts of Aggravated Criminal Sexual Abuse (a class 2 felony), as Boss was at least 5 years older than the victim who was under the age of 17 at the time of the alleged incidents. An arrest warrant was obtained and Boss was subsequently taken into custody. Boss remains at the McHenry County Adult Correctional Facility in lieu of a $60,000 bond. His next scheduled court date is listed for August 26, 2015 at 9:00 AM at the McHenry County Government Center.

Throughout this investigation, Woodstock detectives worked in conjunction with a multidisciplinary team consisting of members from the McHenry County States Attorney's Office and the McHenry County Child Advocacy Center.
